

BIO for Danielle Jourdan

Danielle M. Jourdan, BA, CHSS, C-MDI Manager, Life Safety & Emergency Preparedness & Coordinator, Office of Decedent Affairs Saratoga Hospital

Danielle Jourdan, a graduate of John Jay College of Criminal Justice with a degree in Forensic Psychology, is currently the Life Safety and Emergency Preparedness Manager for Saratoga Hospital, an affiliate of the Albany Med Health System located in Saratoga Springs New York. She has worked for Saratoga Hospital for 8 years with a 20-year background and experience in Security and Law Enforcement with a focus on Crisis Intervention. Through her previous positions and education, she currently works with a special emphasis on bridging the gap to bring community resources together for the benefit of the population we serve.

Danielle has a strong philosophy that “Emergency Management plans shouldn’t be a secret” and works with a team of leaders on rounding and educating.

Danielle enjoys ensuring the safety of those around her and finds comfort in knowing staff are as prepared as possible for the unexpected. Danielle also serves as a Deputy Coroner for Saratoga County Coroners Office.
