

David J. Major

MEng, PE, CHC, CHFM
Consultant
Joint Commission Resources

Background

Mr. David Major has over 35 years of construction and facilities management experience. He has managed facility, construction, and biomedical engineering in a wide variety of settings – federal and military facilities; ambulatory, community, regional, tertiary and teaching healthcare facilities; and commercial and educational facilities. Mr. Major’s specialties include environment of care, life safety, emergency preparedness, and real estate.

Professional Experience

- Vice President, Facilities and Construction Management, Tower Health, Reading PA, USA
- Director, Facilities and Construction Management, Reading Health System, Reading PA, USA
- Director, Construction Management, Reading Hospital and Medical Center, Reading PA, USA
- Civil Engineer Corps, United States Navy, Various

Professional Affiliations and Certifications

- American Society of Healthcare Engineers
- Professional Engineer (PE)
- Certified Healthcare Constructor (CHC)
- Certified Healthcare Facilities Manager (CHFM)
- OSHA 10 and 30 Construction Safety

Education

- Master Engineering in Civil Engineering, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL, USA
- Bachelor of Science in Marine Engineering, United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD, USA