

BIO for Marcy Dwyer

Marcy Dwyer, BS RN Administrative Nursing Supervisor Saratoga Hospital

Marcy Dwyer is currently an Administrative Nursing Supervisor for Saratoga Hospital, an affiliate of Albany Med Health System located in Saratoga Springs, New York. She received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Post University and is in her 8th year at a Saratoga Hospital, with a 12 year background in Emergency Medicine.

In her current position, she represents and supports her Nursing Supervision team as the Emergency Preparedness Team Lead. Additionally, she is one of Saratoga's primary AHA certified trainers for ACLS and PALS, a primary Rescue Task Force educator, and Emergency Department per diem staff nurse.

She strives to support collaborative learning amongst staff regarding critical thinking skill application, emergency preparedness, and regulatory adherence.