

Michael S. Bernstein, MSE, MBA, PE, CCE, CHFM is a Life Safety Code Surveyor in the Accreditation and Certification Operations (ACO) at the Joint Commission. The Joint Commission (TJC) certifies or deems healthcare organizations for safe operations. As a LSCS, Mr. Bernstein surveys Hospitals, Critical Access Hospitals, free-standing Emergency Departments, and Ambulatory Health Organizations ensuring that they are compliant with TJC's Life Safety (LS), Environment of Care (EC) and Emergency Management (EM) Chapters and how these chapters interface with their corresponding National Fire Prevention Associate (NFPA) codes and government regulations.

Mr. Bernstein is a Certified Yellow Belt. With this designation, he supports The Joint Commission's activities associated with establishing and sustaining a Robust Process Improvement® (RPI®) culture. As a Certified Yellow Belt, he is trained in the foundational concepts and tools of problem solving and makes improvements to better meet customer expectations and organization objectives.

Mr. Bernstein has worked in healthcare for over 40 years. Working in the hospital setting he has directed Clinical/Biomedical Engineering departments at 6 different facilities, has been a Hospital Safety Officer, Facilities Engineer, and has directed a Plant Operations/Engineering/Construction department at a two-hospital system. He has been a LSCS for the last 10 years. He was an Adjunct Faculty member at IUPUI in the engineering department teaching classes both in person and online in Biomedical Engineering Technology, Facilities Systems, Hospital Facilities Systems for 35 years. Mr. Bernstein has an undergraduate degree in Biomedical Engineering and Electrical Engineering from Vanderbilt University, a Master of Engineering degree in Electrical Engineering, Clinical Engineering, and Health Physics from Purdue University, and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Indianapolis. Mr. Bernstein is a Registered Professional Engineer, Certified in Clinical Engineering, and is a Certified Healthcare Facilities Manager. He currently resides in the Indianapolis area.

His hobbies include cycling and following the Chicago Cubs

Contact information:

Work email: mbernstein@jointcommission.org