

Peter Vance

LPCC, CPHQ

Field Director, Behavioral Healthcare & Human Services Program

Surveyor Management & Development

Accreditation & Certification Operations

The Joint Commission

Peter is currently an independently licensed clinical counselor (LPCC) in Santa Fe, New Mexico and also maintains certification as a Professional in Healthcare Quality (CPHQ). He has been with the Joint Commission for eight years as both a surveyor and field director.

Prior to joining The Joint Commission, Peter was Director of Quality Improvement for the state-wide public sector Behavioral Health Managed Care contract in New Mexico where he was responsible for Quality Improvement Activities, Risk Management, budget and protocol development, organization structure and committee function.

Peter's clinical experience has included acute care psychiatric hospital intake/diagnostic assessment, adolescent residential treatment, adult treatment (CMHC/FQHC), child/adolescent equine-assisted psychotherapy, and home-based behavioral therapy with ID/DD population.