Standards Interpretation Group

Healthcare Improvement Division

The Joint Commission

Tiffany Wiksten, MSN, RN, CIC, currently holds the position of Associate Director of the Standards Interpretation Group in the Division of Healthcare Improvement at The Joint Commission. In this role, Ms. Wiksten is responsible for working closely with accredited and certified organizations to interpret The Joint Commission standards, identify vulnerabilities, and improve their performance. She also responds to inquiries from accredited organizations and the public, related to compliance with Joint Commission Standards. She provides guidance based on clinical expertise in infection prevention through the provision of expert interpretation, guidance, and collaboration.

Prior to joining The Joint Commission, Ms. Wiksten worked as an Infection Preventionist for nine years. Most recently, she was the Manager of Infection Prevention at a major metropolitan medical center. She has led infection prevention and control efforts in a variety of healthcare settings, ranging from community and academic medical centers to ambulatory healthcare sites, where she has worked with populations of unique risks and requirements.
